INTRODUCTION

I started learning Astrology 15 years ago, & first interpreted my 2 children's charts. Born 5 years apart by cesaerean I was unsure of their birth times. Each hospital ascertained exactly the same for both, but each has different Ascendant signs. It's often assumed with no accurate time of birth drawing up a Birthchart is impossible. Some Astrologers use noon, but I ascertain the Ascendant in other ways, eg: how someone comes across, initial reactions, or asking someone knowing them. I've interpreted charts for people not knowing their time, place, or even correct date of birth.

Almost all of us knows our Sun sign, but may wonder why we don't fit stereotype descriptions, as we're all so different. We may not always know the many factors that makes us unique, because the influence of our Ascendant sign and placement of all the other planets & aspects formed very strongly influence us. The following pages give brief details of just how various factors have an effect. The first shows a picture & brief details on a Birthchart, I usually send out, around 50 pages long. The pictures and descriptions for Chinese & Indian Astrology charts are what's included in Triple Charts— picture on 1st page, these total around 110 pages & are very complex

WESTERN ASTROLOGY

There are 144 combinations for the Sun/Ascendant, also 144 combinations for Sun/Moon. Western Astrology is much more than just your Sunsign. Western birthcharts interpret the sign & house position of planets and nodes, plus the aspects made to each, shape of chart & numerous other factors. The Ascendant in the 1st house, based on date, time & place of birth, begins the chart, the Signs, Planets & Nodes interpreted are as follows:-

At the end of the usual Birthcharts, are about 8 pages of Chinese Astrology data, which relate to your Birth Signs - Year, Hour, Month, plus your Elements— Sign, Year, Hour, Month & Count of Birth, with details of your Chinese/Western signs.

The Chinese Birthcharts in the Triple Charts are Hexagonal, they're complex, with interpretation of the planets, stars, Lunar Mansions & numerous other complex factors, the planets have different meanings to those in Western Astrology.
